

6: Cathedral Park

A City of Portland park that offers one of the few points of access to the river in its last miles. The site provides an excellent entry to Portland Harbor, the most industrial area of the entire river. Access is best via the beach to the left of the boat ramp, or the adjacent floating dock.